WILLIS IS THE CEN

THE OF MY LIFE

We of the Roy le dedicate 1974 to the man we feel deserves it more than any other, Russell Heft

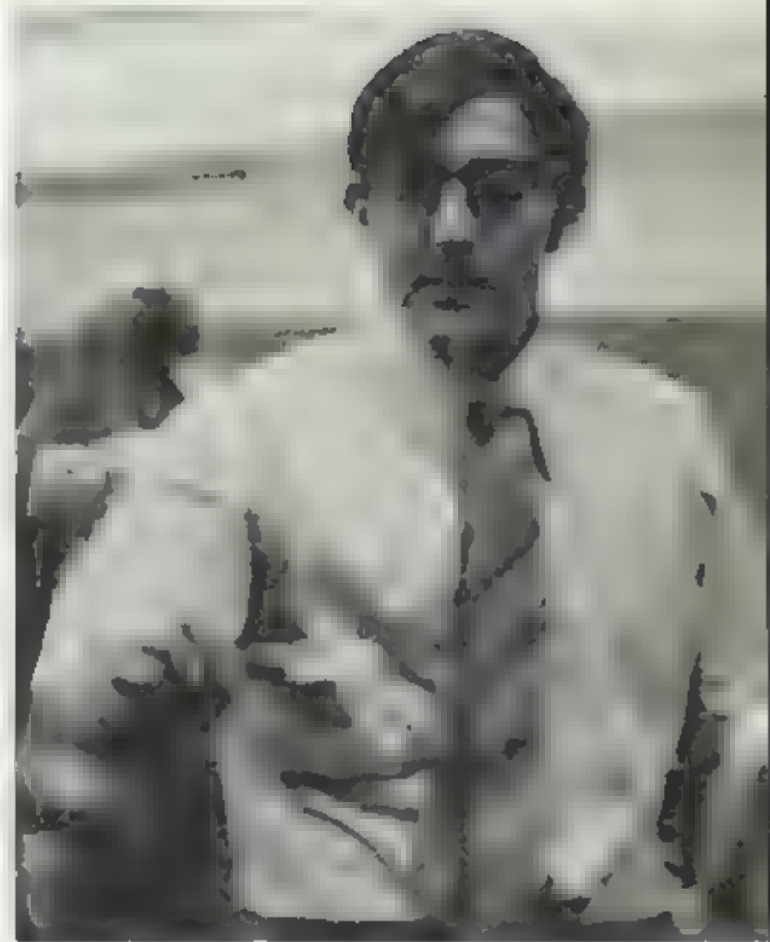

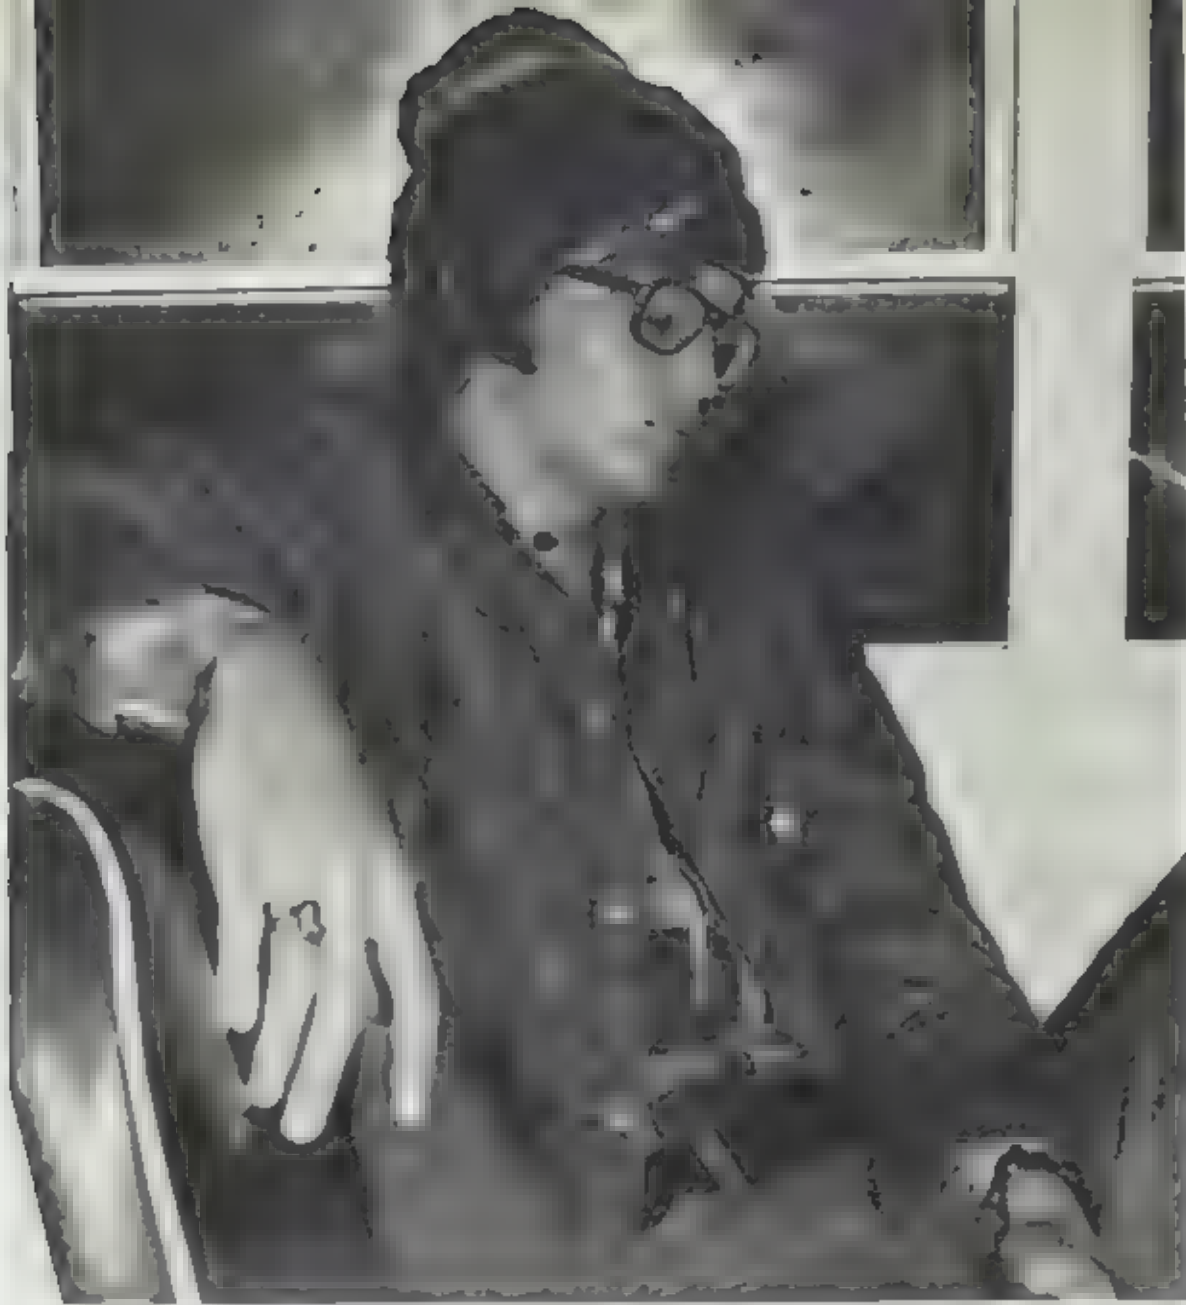

We, the Senior members of the Roy le staff, feel it is appropriate to dedicate the 1974 edition to Mr. Russell Heft. This, we feel, will serve not only as a dedication to him, but as a memorium to him as well.

In the over three years of our acquaintance with Mr. Heft we came to know him as a fine teacher and as a fine man. We remember in the halls when he was there, always with a warm smile and a "Hi!" to everyone he met. As a teacher in the community for over forty years, he served many people and was as respected at the beginning of his teaching career as he was at his death.

Mr. Heft's untimely death in late 1973 caused much feeling at Wynford. We think it is fine time that a great individual of the community receive recognition for his service. Therefore, we, the Senior members of the Roy le staff, do hereby dedicate our annual to Mr. Russell D. Heft.

School Board, Administration solve school problems

The Board and Administration set up many new policies this year, one of which pertained to the cafeteria during the lunch period. All students were asked to remain in this area where games were made available to the students. This policy worked well.

The guidance office gave advice to students and provided help for juniors and seniors who were preparing for the future.

Mrs. Noblet worked hard to buy new books and get more information concerning many fields of interest.

This year the special education department was expanded to provide better facilities for the students.

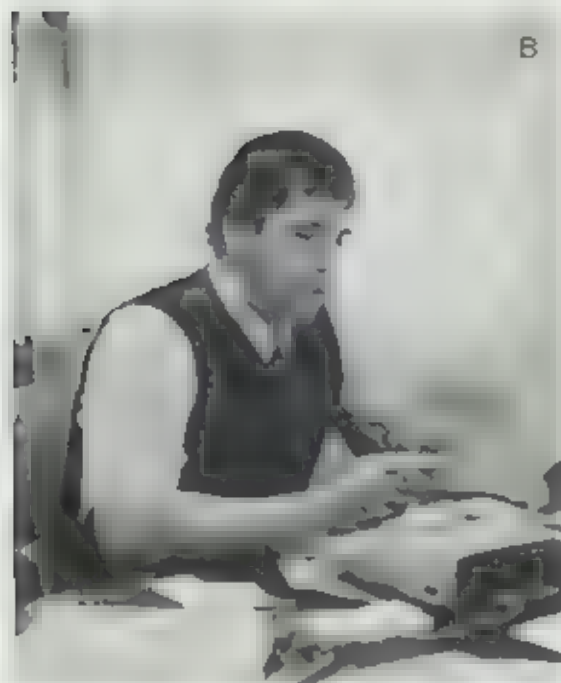

The secretaries aided students as well as the faculty.

- A. Secretary to the Principal-Mrs. Norma Whitmeyer
- B. Board Clerk-Treasurer-Mrs. Helen Beidelohies
- C. Secretary to the Superintendent-Mrs. Judy Gilliland
- D. Superintendent-William Donnsworth
- E. Board of Education: Charles Crall; Claude Young; Helen Beidelohies, clerk-treasurer; Darl Keller, president; William Donnsworth, superintendent; Douglas Hoover; Lewis Kaiser

Special People Aid Students

- A: Mr. Don Miller - Principal,
 B: Mr. Gene Dulin - Guidance Counselor,
 C: Miss Carolyn Schurr - Guidance
 Counselor,
 D: Mrs. Judy Hite - Special Education,
 E: Miss Sandy Billirakis - Special Education.
 F: Mrs. Sylvia Noblet - Librarian,
 G: Mrs. Marjorie Armbruster - School Nurse.

Study of Languages Produces More Expressive Individuals

Through English many students learned basic techniques as well as literary comprehension.

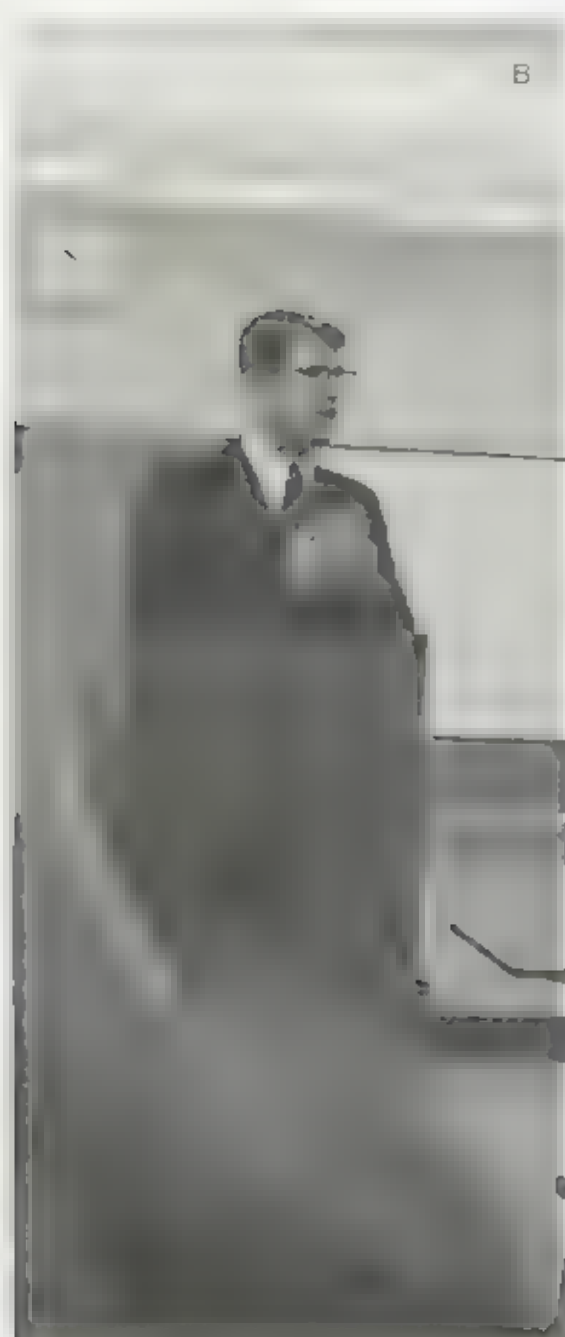

Mrs. Shaffer taught Freshman and Junior English along with Speech. In these classes they expressed themselves freely.

The Sophomore and Senior English classes were taught by Mrs. Thornton. In her classes there was a combination of grammar and literature. The Seniors worked hard on their term papers during the second semester. All classes did book reports.

Mr. Markey also taught Junior English classes. In these classes the students read poetry and also wrote term papers.

Mr. Borland instructed the Spanish and some Freshman English classes. Students were taught grammar and language usage in these mind-searching classes.

A: Mrs. Margaret Thornton - Sophomore, Senior English.

B: Mr. William Markey - Junior English, Algebra.

C: Mr. Larry Borland - Spanish I, II, Freshman English.

D: Mrs. Frances Shaffer - Speech, Freshman, Junior English.

E: Mrs. Thornton explains some of literature's finer things.

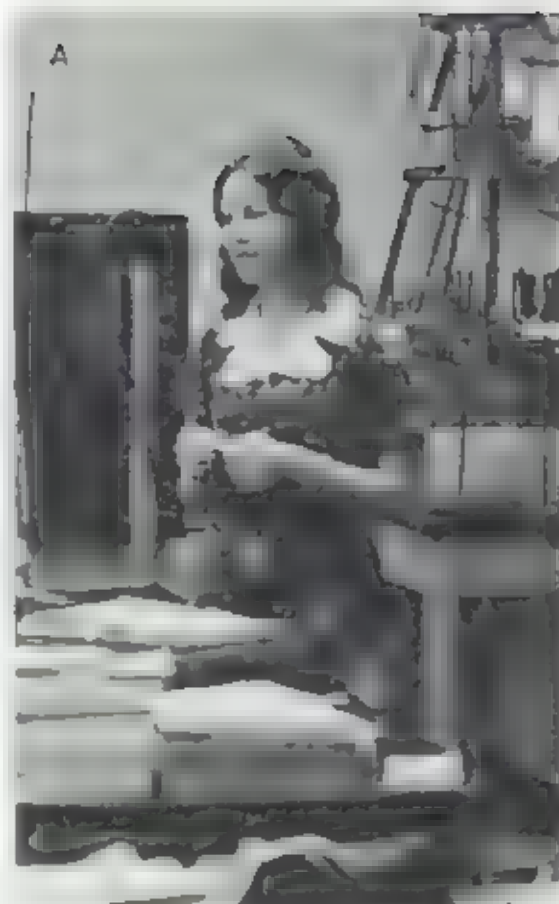

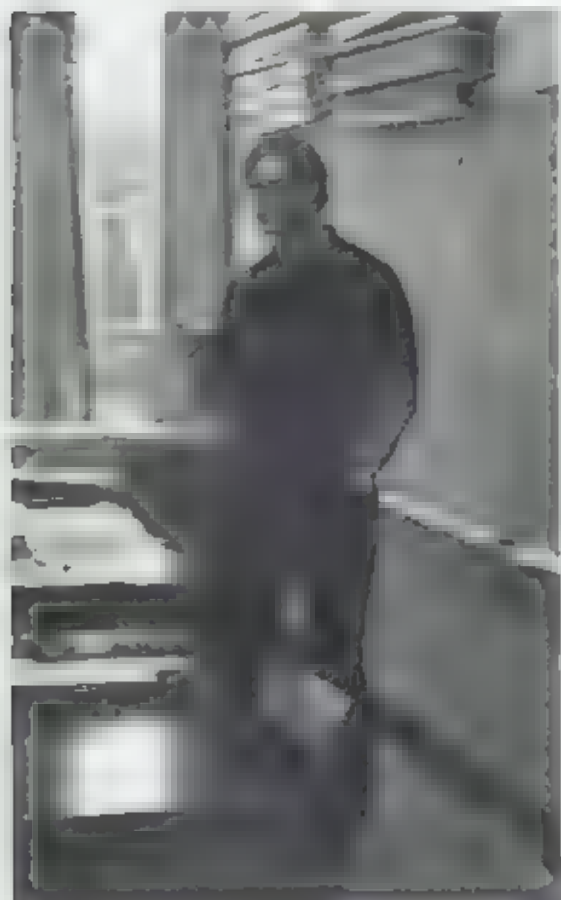

Math, Science Give Answers to Problems of Future Generations

Through math and science men have developed our modern world. Here at Wynford students learned the necessary steps for the future.

In the math department Mr. Markey taught Algebra I students the basic operations of variables. Miss Green taught fundamentals as well as higher levels of math.

In the science department the students once again presented science projects. The General Science classes learned the things they will need later in other science courses. The Biology classes learned the structures of many plants and animals. The Chemistry classes learned how to experiment and collect data. The Physics class learned the laws of motion and different laws of nature.

A: Miss Sue Green - General Math, Geometry, Algebra II, Senior Math.
B: Mr. Charles Campbell - Biology, Advanced Biology.
C: Mr. Glen Smith - General Science.
D: Mr. Thomas Naftzger - General Science, Chemistry, Physics.
E: Mr. Naftzger illustrates the basic formulas in Physics.

- A: Mr. Suter gets hassled in the hall.
- B: Mr. James Neff - Agriculture Business, Production Agriculture I, III.
- C: Mr. Michael Crow - Mechanical Drawing I, II, III.
- D: Mr. Ronald Suter - Industrial Arts I.
- E: Mr. Wallace Enders - Industrial Arts II, III, IV.
- F: Mr. Ronald Rindfuss - Motor Mechanics, Production Agriculture I, II.

Vocational Skills Help Pupils Get Prepared for Occupations

Vocational courses offered students an excellent chance to obtain the many skills needed to get a job after graduation.

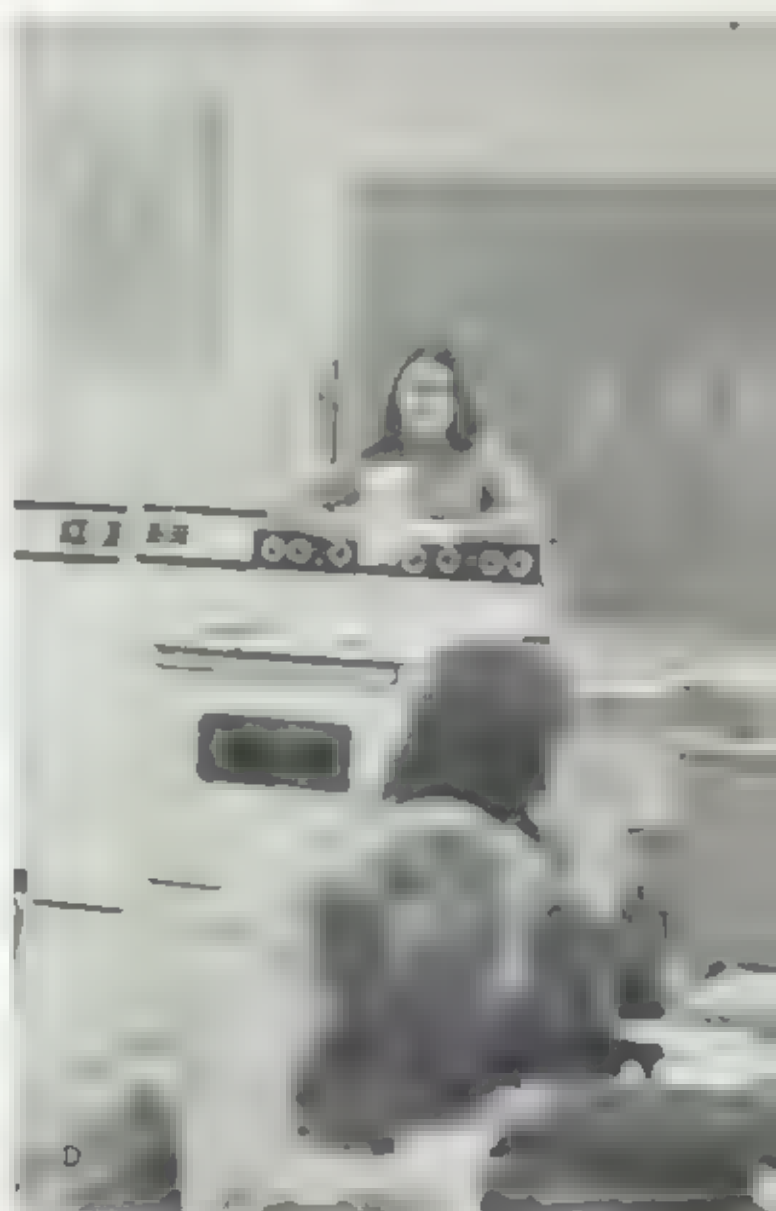

In IOE the students learned the basics of business while working in an office setting. Here they became skilled in typing, shorthand, and filing along with other skills demanded in employment, including how to accept responsibility.

In Vocational Agriculture the students learned a wide range of skills relating to the agricultural field.

The industrial arts department provided training for today's shops.

Home Economic students received training in sewing, cooking, home furnishings, and child care.

- A: Mr. Larry Schiefer - Business Math, IOE I.
- B: Mrs. Ellen Schiefer - Home Economics.
- C: Mr. Dale Zeller - Typing I, II, III, Shorthand I, II, III, Applied Economics, Business Law.
- D: Mrs. Linda Bowlby - Home Economics.
- E: Mrs. Evelyn Kiess - Bookkeeping, Business English, IOE II.

Music, Art, Phys. Ed. Provide Students With Change of Pace

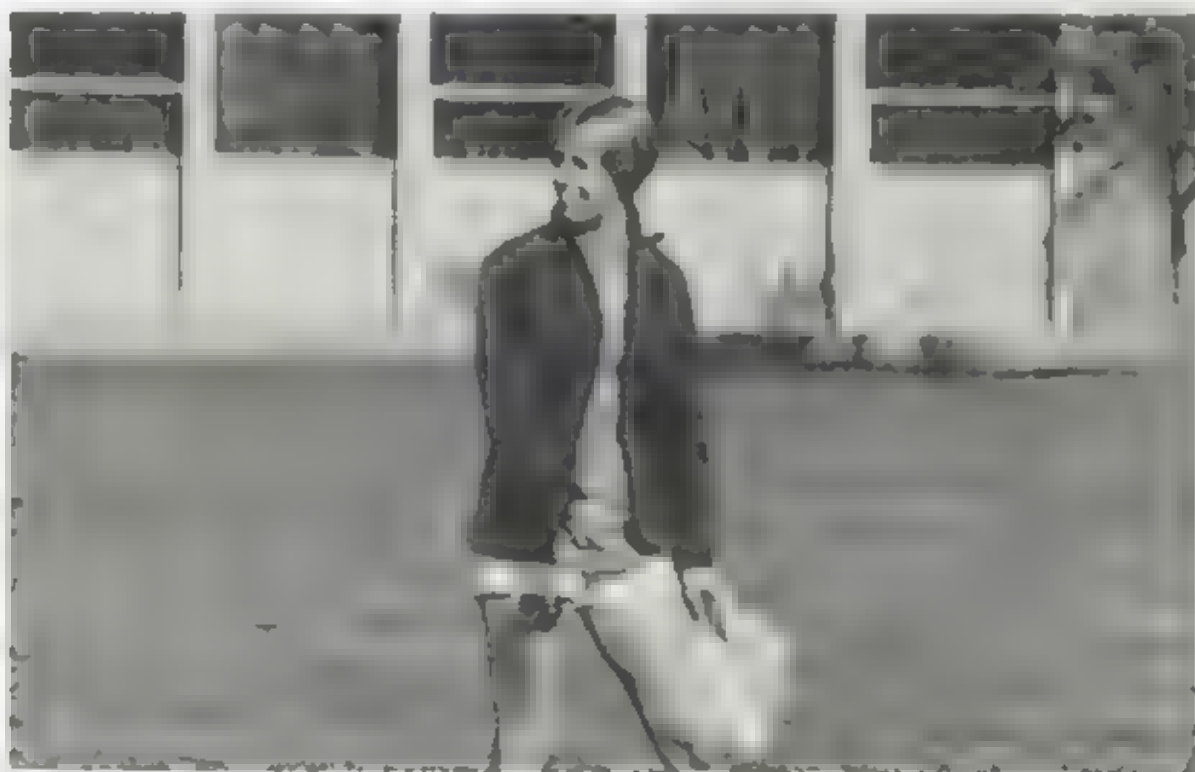

Music, Art, and Physical Education provided students with a change of pace in the daily school routine.

The band showed a lot of talent not only during marching season, but also in the concerts they presented this year.

The choir, under their new director, Mr. Boos, worked hard to give great concerts. This year they also presented a musical, "High Button Shoes."

The physical education department built a strong program for both boys and girls by providing them with involvement in many activities such as gymnastics, archery, golf, tennis, and volleyball. Co-ed classes were occasionally held.

The art department held an art show where students displayed their exhibits of paintings, sculpture, and miscellaneous items.

- A: Mrs. Sue Rothermel - Art I, II, III, Art Fundamentals.
- B: Mr. Kenneth Boos - Vocal Music.
- C: Mrs. Debbie Terwilliger - Girls' Physical Education.
- D: Mr. Arvine Kindinger - Instrumental Music.
- E: Mr. John Terwilliger - Boys' Physical Education

Local, National, World Affairs Become Alive in Civic Courses

Civics shows us that much responsibility rests upon the citizens of our country. This responsibility not only rests upon the election of our representatives, but also upon our taking an active part in civil affairs. The American Government course teaches this important concept.

Through the American and World History courses, the students learn about both the past and the present. These classes give an overview of our own cultural heritage.

In Sociology, Psychology, and Family Living the student learns of the problems facing modern societies. Hopefully, some answers will result.

It is through these courses offered that the future can be assured.

- A: Mr. Karl Dilley - American, World History.
- Mr. James Bauer - American Government.
- C: Mr. Thomas Schreck - American History, Sociology, Family Living.
- D: Mr. Nicholas Kajca - World Geography, Psychology, Health.

Personnel Provide Services to Maintain School's Operation

Our school is lucky in that we are provided with good and nutritious meals each day. The cooks prepare nearly 400 meals daily that Mrs. Dickey plans for the student body and faculty.

The janitors are responsible for keeping the school clean and in working order. They are always willing to help and are here for their regular hours as well as for all school functions.

With the dedication of these people, our school operates efficiently.

A. Mr. Ray Brooks - Janitor.
B: Mrs. Odeal Rindfuss, Mrs. Martha Hackney, Mrs. Helen Wilson, Mrs. Virginia Stahl, Mrs. Miriam Louis - Cooks.
C: Mrs. Velma Dickey - Cafeteria Supervisor and Dietitian.
D: Mr. Robert McAdams - Janitor

Seniors Work Twelve Long Years for Their Diplomas

For the past twelve years the Seniors have been working hard to achieve their main goal: a diploma. This year 112 students succeeded. During this time they went through some easy moments and some rough moments. In both cases they came out on top despite any difficulties that arose. On May 26, 1974, all their efforts were rewarded when they received their diplomas. At that moment everything that they had gone through seemed well worth it.

Creativity Takes Much Thought as Seniors Show Many Talents

Many of the Seniors had a lot of talent which was shown in different ways. These talents ranged from painting pictures to cutting out decorations to playing with wheels in Physics class to listening to a teacher and taking down notes. Also included were talents in music, dramatics, athletics, academics, or simply in the art of making other people happy. Whatever talents they possessed, the Seniors went at it with great zeal.

"Today We Follow; Tomorrow We Lead" Is Senior Class Motto

This year, after much thought, the Seniors chose as their motto "Today we follow; tomorrow we lead." Many ideas were presented, but after selecting three different ideas to choose from, the class voted and picked the one that best represented their feelings.

With some difficulty, the class chose the red rose as their flower. It was decided that the boys would wear a short-stem rose on their robes while the girls would receive a long-stem rose after receiving their diplomas.

The class decided that their colors would be light and dark blue which was reflected in their tassels.

In preparation for the class play, Mrs. Rothermel discusses some ideas with Steve Louis and Cheryl Eden.

Seniors Do Many Things Before They Graduate in Late Spring

In the past year the Seniors did many things. At the beginning of the year they had their pictures taken. Then they became involved in Homecoming activities.

Soon came the time to order their graduation announcements. At this time a class motto, flower, and colors had to be chosen while making preliminary commencement plans.

Next came the class play. During the year the art classes, which involved many talented Seniors, were preparing for their exhibit. Also throughout the year the Seniors were active in clubs and organizations, music programs, Intramurals, and interscholastic sports.

Soon came the event all were waiting for, graduation. On May 26, 1974, the Seniors took their last step as students at Wynford High School. Whatever direction they follow, there will always be memories of Wynford to follow them.

Sophomores Carry Heavy Loads in Extracurricular Activities

The Sophomore class played a big part in the school's organizations and activities. Both gals and guys from the class showed athletic prowess as they played important roles on the inter-scholastic teams.

The Sophomores sponsored the Spring Dance which, with the theme of the 50's, was very enjoyable. The class also sponsored coat checks during the basketball season to help gain enough money to put on the Jr.-Sr. Prom next year.

One final year-end activity for the class was serving at this year's prom where they wore appropriate costumes for their part in "The Old West" theme.

Freshmen Get Acquainted With Wynford's Numerous Offerings

The Freshmen came to Wynford this year to a new experience. The first few days were hectic and several Frosh wound up in the wrong classrooms. After a while, though, they learned the school and its ways and went through the year in fine fashion.

To make money for the class they had cake raffles at basketball games and they ran the concession stand at their own Freshmen basketball games. The Thanksgiving Assembly was their responsibility and the presentation was a very fine one.

The Freshmen had a good first year and their contributions in the future should be a valuable asset to Wynford High School.

Joan Gervais Reigns As Queen During Homecoming Activities

The 1973 Football Homecoming was held on October 12 at the Wynford-Mohawk game. Five girls representing various organizations competed for the title of Homecoming Queen. Those girls were Kim Eppley - F.F.A., Kay Miller - F.H.A., Emily Clark - Key Club, Joan Gervais - Varsity W, and Judy Bender - Freshman Choir.

Tom Kalb, president of Varsity W, announced and crowned the queen, Miss Joan Gervais, during pregame activities. Serving as escorts for the ceremonies were Larry Whitmeyer, Bruce Keller, Steve Louis, Kevin Ruth, and Joe Dotson. A dance featuring the "Ratz" was held following the game.

Musical "High-Buttoned Shoes" Verifies Talented Music Dept.

The vocal music department presented the musical "High-Buttoned Shoes." This is a story of a "con" man who tries to sell various items, including a car with no engine. It is also a story with "romance" and "violence." The musical was given three nights and was a big success.

As the "con" artist Harrison Floyd, Tad Shealy demonstrates his "gift of gab" to all those who will listen.

Playing the part of Hubert Oglethorpe, Rutgers star football player, Tom Schiefer seeks the love of his town sweetheart, Fran, played by Pam Heiber.

Uncle Willie, Mark Leuthold, and the maid Nancy, Sarah Keller, dance the provocative tango.

A fisticuff between the football star and the con man for the love of Fran is imminent as part of the Rutgers football team looks on.

The con artist proposes that Fran Longstreet run away with him, but her brother Stevie, Bud Cronin, overhears.

Students in Library, Office Help Our School Effectively

Some students devoted time to the school during school hours. These were the librarians and office help.

Librarians aided students and faculty by locating needed reference material, helping with book choices, and advertising new books purchased by the school. In addition, librarians prepared several showcase displays and had an exchange program with other schools.

The office help worked with Mr. Dilley in preparing the absent list each day. They also sorted the mail and ran routine errands for the teachers and Mrs. Whitmeyer.

Office Help:

A: Linda Hatcher, Michele Kinsey, and Elaine Gerhart operate the duplicating machine.

B: Kaye Griffin, Kim Eppley, Sue Makeever, and Sue Clark sort the daily mail.

As part of the Fiesta entertainment, Brian "Fernando" Stockmaster renders his version of the Frito Bandito.

Banquets End Many Programs

Banquets served the purpose of bringing many activities to a close. It was a time to honor the various participants with appropriate awards and to thank everyone for the great efforts they had put forth. It was a time to show pride in whatever endeavor was undertaken.

FFA officers Kathy Hornak, Charlene Miller, and Cindy Taylor are set to initiate new members.

At the FFA Banquet, Mike Snyder presents Mrs. Whitmeyer with an honorary chapter degree.

Mr. and Mrs. Bauer, Jim "Diego" Bauer, and Bruce "Bernardo" Keller are about to enjoy their favorite Spanish dishes.

Concert, Symphonic Bands Give Several Notable Performances

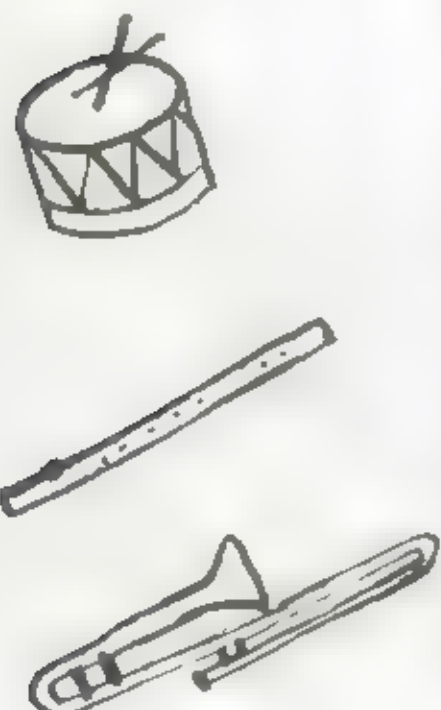

This year the band had a very good year. With marching band season over, students were assembled into concert and symphonic bands. These bands presented a winter concert and combined with the choir for a spring concert.

In addition the Royal Brass, the stage band, had several performances, including a Wynford assembly and several banquets. This group also played for the Mini-Follies.

Royal Clarion Prints News, Sports, Editorials, Gripes

What Do YOU Think of Wynford?

When the Frosh were asked, "What do you think of Wynford?" these were some of their replies:

Barb Gibb - "Ha, ha, ha!"

Peggy Walkins - "Wynford's alright, but the big guys are always boxing us around."

Susie Cregar - "I like it mostly because of the boys."

Sarah Keller - "I like it."

Ruth Bassett - "It's just one of those things you don't like to talk about."

Wynford's newspaper, the Royal Clarion, tried to keep the students informed. School news, sports stories, editorials, special columns, and key pictures added appeal to the paper.

Under co-editors Vera Stormer and Sharon Rothhaar, the Royal Clarion Staff attempted to publish a monthly newspaper worthy of the Wynford students.

Outstanding Individual, Team Honors Are Achieved for F.F.A.

The FFA had a year of activities for which they received a gold medal award. Over the July 4 holidays the club gave out free coffee and lemonade at a local roadside park.

During the year such projects as selling citrus fruit, cider, and Vitality seeds brought in revenue needed to buy tools for their shop and to pay part of the cost for members attending FFA camps and the National Convention. The group also donated a camera to Fairway School.

The General Livestock Judging Team ranked fifth in state competition with Gary Scheffler placing fourth in state beef judging. Steve Neff placed third in district prepared speaking and Dennis McClintock placed first in creed speaking contests. Matt Lydick placed first in the district in engineering competition.

Money from the FFA citrus sale is collected by Dale Wolfe.

1974 Royále Expands to Permit More Coverage of Student Life

Creating a Wynford High School yearbook is the responsibility of the Royale staff. Under the leadership of Mike Cuffman, Editor-in-Chief, and Mr. Larry Borland, Advisor, the staff members were kept busy every Wednesday after school and even into summer getting advertisements, organizing pages, planning pictures, and writing headlines, captions, and copy. This year's staff decided to enlarge the yearbook to provide for greater coverage of Wynford's many activities and opportunities.

Intensive Office Education: Office Tasks, Office Setting

For the WHS students, interested in entering the business field, the Junior and Senior IOE programs set fine standards. Skills necessary for office jobs were gained through typing, shorthand, bookkeeping, filing, business English, and related courses.

Included in these courses were many varied machines which served as aids. These two courses offered a fine opportunity for students to study the general office procedures within an office setting.

Future Medical Club Delivers Informative Talks, Experience

One of the aims of the Future Medical Club is to give its members information and experience in the various medical fields. To this end the club toured the facilities of the Bucyrus Community Hospital. They also heard a talk by Mrs. Tarbert on child retardation, a talk by the district representative of March of Dimes who presented a fine film to the library, and a talk about the general care of the elderly by a representative of King's Daughters who support Maple Crest Nursing Home. It is hoped that some future club member will be accepted into the local Candy Strippers program to gain more experience.

Individualistic WHS Students Dance to a Different Drummer

The era of "doing your own thing" was best expressed at Wynford's dances. Sponsored throughout the year by various organizations, the dances ranged from informal record hops to more formal live bands. Regardless of the type of dance or music, everyone enjoyed the activity in his own way.

Underclassmen Joy Kochensparger, Connie Carr, and Tammy Whitmeyer demonstrate their style of dancing.

"The Old West" Comes Alive as Junior-Senior Prom Is Staged

The Junior-Senior Prom was held on May 18 with the theme "The Old West." The festivities began at 7:00 with a banquet followed by a short program. From 8:30 - 12:00 dancing to the music of "Blossom" was enjoyed.

The after prom activities included a "magic" show, a movie, and a rock band. For the all-night survivors, a 4:00 breakfast was served.

Overall and NCC record 2-6-1

Spirit, Pride; Keys to Success for Improved Year in Football

One may not feel a record of only 2-6-1 is very good, but the Wynford football team truly had a fine season, not indicated by the record. The defense showed vast improvement throughout the year which was climaxed by the season ending shutout of Ridgedale. The offense also improved as they were shutout only once by a fine Mohawk team. The Royals used the elements of pride, determination, and spirit to win. As shown by the scores, our team was never out of a game until the very end. Instead of being 2-6-1, it could very well have been 6-3. Great things may be expected next year that have never been expected before from the football team and, with the elements used this year, the Royals can and will go far.

This year the Freshmen, under the coaching of Mr. Kajca and Mr. Schreck, discovered new techniques and different ways of accomplishing their task, defeating their opponent. The offense had its problems during the year, but the defense was hard to score against.

Standouts of the Freshman team had to be end Jim Weaver, who made some great catches during the year, and Dennis McClintock, who had some fine runs as a halfback. All the players should help in producing a stronger Varsity next year.

Coaches Mold Talent; Spirit Is Great Behind Cheerleaders

The football coaches did an excellent job of changing fine individual talent into good units. Coaches Schreck and Kajca installed new concepts and techniques into the Freshmen. Coaches Terwilliger, Campbell, and Miller worked with the Varsity on the mental as well as physical aspects of the game.

School spirit took a great step forward as indicated by the student body's willingness to participate in pep rallies. Everyone was united in the effort to produce wins for the school.

The cheerleaders worked hard in many areas this year to give our teams the incentive to win. The football and cross country teams both received fine support from our cheerleading squads.

School spirit is shown not only by the cheerleaders, but also by the players and student body at the memorable pre-Mohawk game pep rally.

Volleyball Teams Have Fine Individual Talent As Nuclei

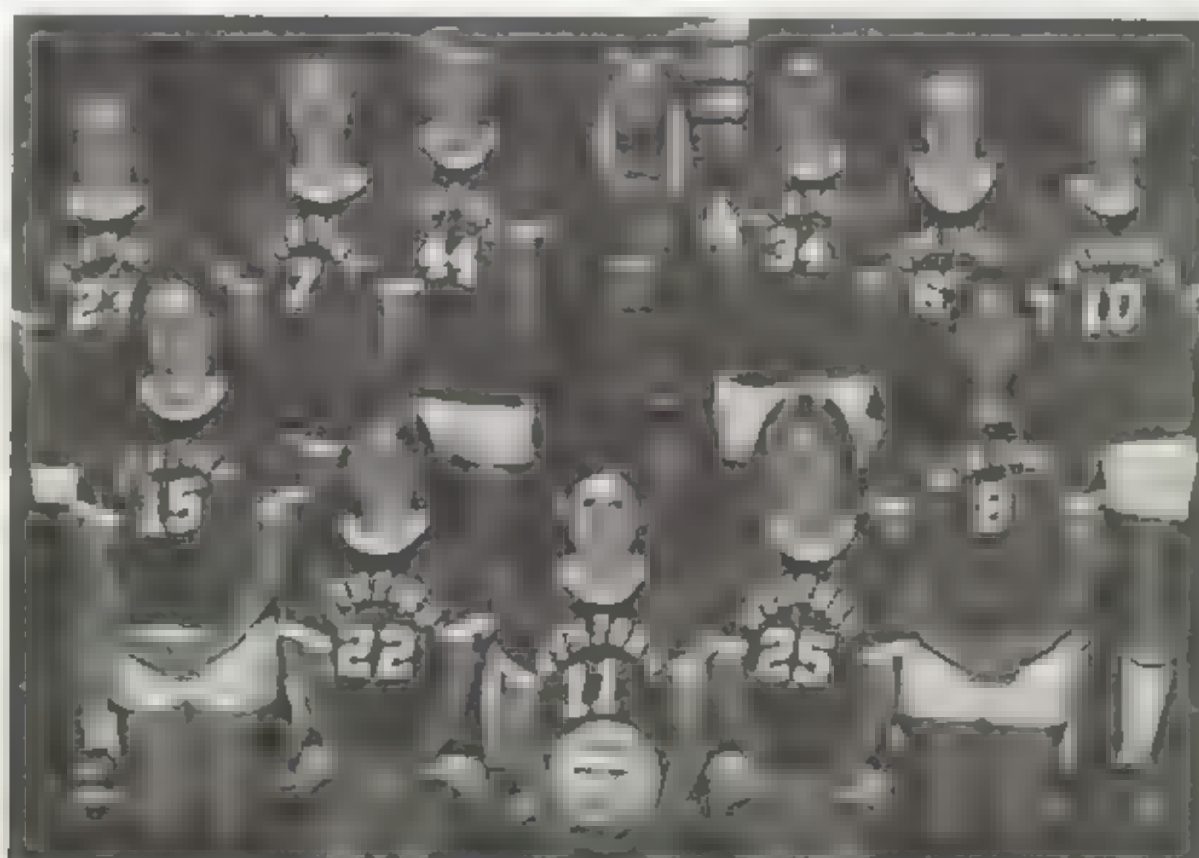

The WHS volleyball teams had good seasons of 4-5 (Reserves) and 5-5 (Varsity). The Varsity's top win came when they defeated Bucyrus rather handily. The Varsity also participated in the Mansfield Malabar Invitational where many fine teams played.

The Reserves had many strong players and with the bulk of the Varsity squad returning next year, the outlook looks good for the teams to improve their records.

Dotson highlighted the year when he became the first Wynford Cross Country runner to qualify for the State meet. Dotson went to Columbus and finished 25th in "AA". Joe also set a new school record in the two mile event when he ran 9:47 at the Findlay Invitational. Freshmen Chris Dunlap and Steve Neff earned Varsity letters this year. Dunlap set a new Freshman record with a time of 10:41.

Fine Cheerleading Squads Back School's Teams All the Way

This year's cheerleading squads were fantastic to say the least. They backed our teams in every way they saw possible. During the year the cheerleaders sponsored various contests such as "The Senior Football Player with the Best Legs," "Best Looking Baby of the Senior Basket-ballers," hall decoration days, and "blue and gray" days to promote school spirit. These fine young ladies represented our school well. Many of their routines came from ex-periences they encountered at cheer-leading camp where they won many awards.

Also, the statisticians performed a vitally needed service to the coaches. Their efforts were appreciated.

Roundballers Have Even Season With Veteran Talent Returning

The Wynford Royals basketball team fielded a team with strong individual talent this year. The Royals had problems with offense and turnovers, but made up for these with rugged defensive play and hustle. Opponents had all they could want from this team of mostly underclassmen.

The Royals' offense was headed by Tim Steinhilber and Tom Kalb who each had many strong games. Rebounding chores were controlled mostly by Todd Stahl and Steinhilber. And with only three Seniors graduating, the Royals should be experienced and tough for the 1974-75 season.

The WHS Reserves had problems only in producing wins. In the categories of hustle, desire, and potential they had 100%.

Our coaches, Mr. Bauer and Mr. Miller, should be lauded for their efforts to instill the principles of sportsmanship in their players.

NCC FRESHMEN TOURNEY

This year the Freshmen showed they were capable of playing fine basketball. For their first unified effort as a team, the Frosh played well. They played a rather disciplined type of basketball while learning new offenses, defenses, etc.

With an overall record of 9-7, the Freshmen were defeated in the second round of the NCC Tournament by a fine Riverdale team. Much talent was bestowed on the team members as speed, quickness, and agility were big pluses for them. Mr. Kajca did a fine job teaching these young men new techniques and fundamentals to make each one a better basketball player.

Varsity, Reserve Teams Fight Together for Team Victories

The girls' basketball teams didn't have fine records, but everyone gave it her all. Lack of height and a balanced attack accounted for many of the defeats. The Varsity finished 2-9 and the Reserves 2-8. Janey Wert led the Varsity in scoring while Diane Miller was the leading rebounder and leading field goal shooter for percentage. Freshman Sharon Wert led the Varsity in free throw percentage. Tammy Laipply led the Reserves in all categories except rebounding which was led by Melanie Mutchler.

A team meeting can solve a lot of problems.

Intramurals, Weight Lifting Are Two Activities of Winter

Many young men participated in intramurals and weight lifting this year. Both activities proved to be of value to those involved. Mr. Smith ran intramurals and Mr. Terwilliger, weight lifting.

Weight lifting helped improve bodies as well as build stamina.

Different clubs were awarded to those making qualifications.

Intramurals helped those not playing interscholastically to feed their craving for basketball. A tourney held in intramurals had the All-Stars (champs) defeating the Honchos in the finals.

Freshmen Shine in Track Events

Several Freshmen participated on Varsity level this year which shows fine ability. Times were good and efforts were great as they prepared themselves for Varsity competition in the coming years. The squad placed second in a field of fine teams at the Wynford Freshman Relays.

Senior Tom Kalb shows the form that made him county champion three years in a row.

Trackmen Earn Praise for Fine Accomplishments During Season

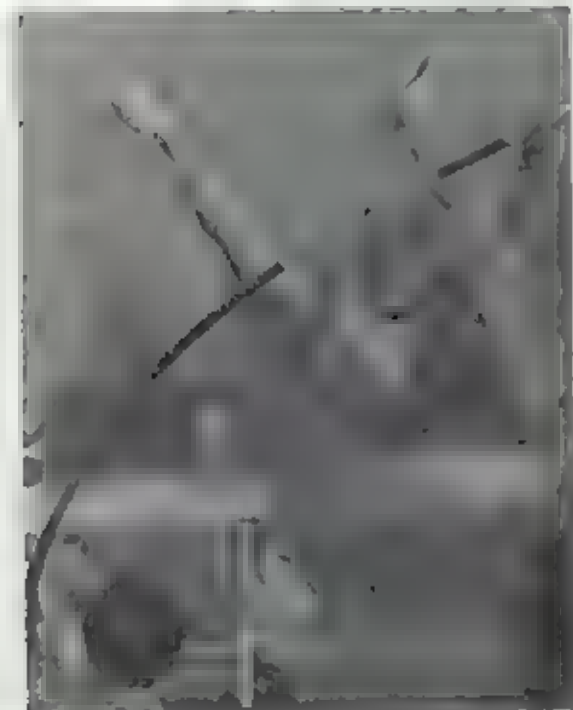

Track and field was again a dominant sport at WHS this year. Wynford showed its team ability with many convincing dual and triangular meet wins. The club did have trouble at the big meets, though, as the closest defeat came in the Crawford Co. Meet when Galion nosed our Royals out by a scant point. A higher finish than third was also expected in the NCC.

Wynford qualified several individual and team participants for the District. They were Mark Leuthold—pole vault, Mike Risner—discus, Tom Kalb—high jump, Joe Dotson—two mile, and the 880 yd. relay team. Mike Risner became the only trackster from Wynford to qualify for the State Meet at Columbus.

One school record was broken this year. That was by Joe Dotson in the two mile run with a time of 10:00.9.

Strict training, tough workouts, and domestic rules by Mr. Kajca and Mr. Smith helped make the team live up to its potential.

County champion Mark Leuthold shows the three steps to good pole vaulting: 1. Down the runway, 2. The vault, 3. Clearance.

Fine Turnout for Track Helps Girls Capture Several Awards

The girls' track team possessed the ingredients needed to win this year, ability, determination, and spirit. Undeclared in dual and triangular meets the squad brought home team trophies from the Bucyrus Relays and the Galion Invitational. The squad placed second in the Crawford Co. Meet being nosed out by arch-rival Galion, and second at the Malabar Invitational behind an extremely talented Wadsworth team.

There were many fine individuals on the team who helped guide the other members. Kathy Hornak and Becky Wilburn were both chosen the top individuals of the Crawford Co. Meet. Penny and Diane Miller were always tough in the sprints and the high jump. Jill Kiess and Dianna Stiner in the 440 dash, Loretta and Linda Lohr in the shot put, Kay Kissling and Bobbie Welch in the mile, and Julie Mathews in the softball throw were always counted on for crucial points. Hats off for a fine season and a great job of coaching to Mrs. Terwilliger.

Shoemaker, B. Swalley, P. Watkins, S. Greger. ROW 2: R. Murphy, S. Keller, C. Will, J. Knapp, K. Kissling, B. Welch, M. Mutchler, M. Light, P. Wilburn, L. Beck, J. Kiess, N. Sweitzer, C. Main, M. Taylor, C. Auck, F. Sweitzer, C. Stiger, K. Bucher. ROW 3: D. Hieber, L. Steinhilber, mgr.; R. Ream; G. Louis, S. Richmond, M. Dickey, L. Hord, mgrs.; J. Spengler, P. Guinther, J. Lautzenheiser, T. Whitmeyer, J. Mathews, V. Presler, L. Lohr, L. Lohr, C. Sprau; W. Walcutt, L. Foght, mgrs.; S. Short, Coach Terwilliger.

Up goes Di Miller in the high jump.

A good heave of the shot put by Linda Lohr helps score points.

All alone at the finish is Kathy Hornak.

Out-sprinting her opponent to the wire is Linda Rule.

"Big Blue Machine" Captures Second Position in Conference

The "Big Blue Machine," as the Royal baseball team was nicknamed this year, enjoyed one of the finest seasons ever. The Royals finished in a second place tie in the NCC with a 6-3 record. Only a season ending loss to Ridgedale kept the Royals from winning the title.

The huge turnout this year make it necessary to organize a Reserve team under Mr. Schreck. The Reserves finished with a 2-5 record.

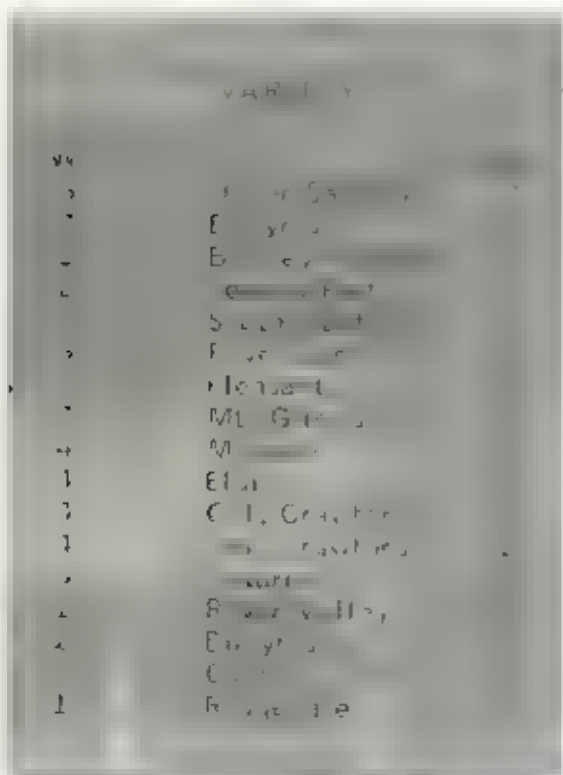

A fine season must be accredited to Mr. Terwilliger for his fine leadership and coaching. The leading hitter was Scott Spengler with a .360 average while Tony Ervin was the leading fielder. Yes, a very fine season it was.

Reserve Baseball: ROW 1: R. Beck, B. Oberlander, C. Linn, K. King, J. Pearl, B. Stockmaster, D. Kocher. ROW 2: Coach Schreck, S. Kibler, T. Clark, B. Roberts, B. Hessey, J. Cramer.

Fireballing Randy Ervin lets her fly.

Golf Team Shows Promise; Many Underclassmen Build on Past

The golfers ran into some good competition this year, but the team played tough with only one Senior on the team. With much experience returning, the linksters should show the way with some fine performances. The team finished 8th in the NCC this year.

A first occurred when Beth Dannenhauer became the first female athlete at Wynford to participate on the interscholastic level. The future looks bright for Wynford in golf as Mr. Markey used his knowledge and golfing skills to perfection in coaching the team.

Watching his ball fall in the hole for a birdie is Ritchie Steiger.

Driving for the pin with concentration is Bob Leonberger.

Golf; ROW 1: R. Steiger, G. Ross, B. Dannenhauer, B. Leonberger. ROW 2: M. Steiger, J. Long, D. Smith, M. Michaels, Coach Markey.

As the No. 1 golfer, Senior Mike Steiger has the responsibility of leading the team.

Winter, Spring Athletes Honored

Many athletes were honored at both the Basketball and Spring Sports Banquets. Special mention was given to athletes honored in the NCC. In basketball Tim Steinhilber was first team all-NCC; Tom Kalb was second team. In baseball Randy Ervin and Scott Spengler were selected for the first team and Steve Louis, honorable mention.

- A. Spring Sports Banquet. Seated: R. Ervin, MVP-baseball. Standing: D. Gerhart, honorary capt.-track; T. Kalb, MVP-track; S. Spengler, honorary capt.-baseball.
 B. Receiving an award for his efforts in baseball is Steve Sutherland.
 C. Basketball Banquet: T. Kalb, top defensive player, T. Steinhilber, MVP, top rebounder, all-Ohio special mention; J. Bauer, top foul shooter.

With many complications and disruptions in our work this year, the result is a late yearbook. Mr. Borland and the editors have worked over a month into the summer trying to produce the best Royale possible. We only hope as a student body the consequences of our efforts will not be slanderous. We thank the student body for its patronage and help in producing the 1974 Royale.

We would like to thank Mr. Borland for his extreme dedication and perserverance, Mr. Earl Parks of American Yearbook for his help with designing pages, Steele Studio for their pictures and processing, and the Bucyrus Telegraph-Forum and Dick Edmond for some fine sports pictures used within these pages.
